Sabrina Hazen announced that discussion took place, but no action was taken.

MOTION: Amanda Moore made a motion to appoint Sabrina Hazen as Mayor to complete the term that will end December 2026. Before a second, the council members were given an opportunity to speak: Joyce Carson stated her case the city residents have put their confidence in the seated Council and her goal was to have continuity of City government. Anthony Cox stated he ran on integrity, transparency, and honesty. After hearing the discussion and taking the advice of KLC (Kentucky League of Cities) he too changed his mind and felt the residents had voted for each of them to office and felt one of them should serve the remainder of the term to ensure projects started could be finished. He felt Sabrina Hazen was a good choice. Steve Jenkins agreed with Joyce and Anthony and felt they were a cohesive group to continue what former Mayor Luke Price had begun. Sabrina Hazen expressed her concern over the high volume of turnover in recent years to mayors and council members, and the concern over losing employees. The city employees, the city residents deserve the loyalty entrusted to them to put the best path forward and appreciated her fellow council members' vote of confidence. Anthony

Cox ended comments by stating he was conflicted internally but realizes the best thing in taking this action is to be transparent. There being no other statements, Anthony Cox seconded the motion appointing Sabrina Hazen as Mayor. Roll Call vote: Steve Jenkins-yes; Craig Owen-no; Anthony Cox-yes; Amanda Moore-yes; Joyce Carson-yes. Motion carried 4-1-0.

At this juncture, City Clerk performed the Oath of Office to new Mayor Sabrina Hazen.
